SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

President	Jennie Glennon
Vice President	Leighanne Merigan
Treasurer	Biz Henderson
Secretary	Emily Ford
Advisors	Diane Dorgan Mickey Stalker

Freshman Year 1991-1992

Frosh's though we were, our class entered Harwich High with visions of success. We took the High School Drama Club by storm and made our dramatic debut with the plays "Harvey" and "The Music Man".

Jennie Glennon was our class President, James Chilaka Vice President, Elizabeth Henderson Treasurer, and Michele Wright Secretary.

Harwich's first Homecoming was held that year. Time rolled by...

Sophomore Year 1992-1993

No longer the impressionable children of Harwich, our class became one of the most active in the school. Our major money maker was the Meadow Muffin Bingo Fair, which raised a considerable amount of cash for the upcoming prom.

The creative juices continued to flow with the plays "The Pink Panther" and "Bye Bye Birdie", which was the highest grossing Harwich production in over ten years.

Class officers were Jennie Glennon, Leighanne Merigan, Elizabeth Henderson and Emily Ford.

Junior Year 1993-1994

As upperclassmen, our class started the year off strong and kept going. We sponsored a float in the Cranberry Harvest Parade, which boosted school spirit and class pride. Our budding dramatists continued to shine with the plays "Mousetrap" and "Anything Goes". The Debate Team went to state finals and scored highly.

Jennie Glennon remained in office as did the other class officers. The Junior Prom was held at the Lighthouse Inn, in Dennis on May 20 1994.

Senior Year 1994-1995

Finally the class of 1995 has come through! As seniors, we have already made our mark. Jennie Glennon, as our President, has done a wonderful job all four years. Leighanne Merigan is our Vice President, Elizabeth Henderson our Treasurer and Emily Ford our Secretary.

The Senior chorus members are leading the largest chorus ever at Harwich, with 65 members. The drama productions are "Auntie Mame" and "The Wizard of Oz".

Our last Homecoming, presented by the Junior class was a success. The King and Queen were Nate White-Canto and Carrie Eldridge.

Soon, after the horror of college applications, the "FAF" and Need to Knows, the class of 1995 will enter the outside world, yet another accomplished class from Harwich High School.

“BERGY” Kristin Bergstrom

I honestly do not believe in writing certain memories down on this paper. I don’t know...I am afraid it will ruin them somehow or set things apart. So, as you read, keep in mind that these are small pieces of my life, they are only words, and in no way do they even begin to express the emotions I experience when I look back. April 24th, Oli’s, Red River, ST’s garage, shaving cream, Nauset Light, the worm, Fort Hill, Moo Moo cow, wrestling, spiders, “the tape”, Hardings, I earned a penny in my Mom’s closet! Maria F. Matamoros M.

USA is a place where people change the name of everything and create a bunch of new words, talk with their pets and treat them like kids; My Government teacher made me, the exchange student, cry on my first day, the Pre-calculus teacher has long hair and wears weird ties (I love him) and the Anatomy teacher drinks coffee in a Beaker. A party means you drink and watch videos and people say "cool" to everything even when you say where you are from and they don't have any idea where your country is. Can you imagine being in a men's room, because you really didn't wake up in the morning and forgot to read the label on the door. In this beautiful place where I found friendship and a lot of nice moments that I'll never forget, I want to say thanks to everybody. Now I have a reason to love the people from the U.S.A.

"Hodge-Podge" Andrew Meier

In the immortal words of David Lee Roth, "Inspiration doesn't come from nowhere, you've got to steal it from someone else. If it was good enough for Beethoven, it's good enough for me".
